132nd Tournament of Roses Parade and Reagan Presidential Library/Museum with Float Barn and Glory Days Tour of Queen Mary

Day 1: Travel to California with meal stops (on your own) along the way. We will check into The Embassy Suites in time for the Daily Happy Hour.

Day 2: Today we travel to Simi Valley to visit our 40th President's Library with plenty of time to step back in time to the history of the 8 years President Reagan served. You'll have a chance to step aboard Air Force One and get your picture taken. Visit a replica of the Oval Office and have lunch on the patio alongside a piece of the Berlin Wall and the final resting places of President Reagan and his wife, Nancy Reagan. Each year there is a new traveling exhibit to explore. Then back to the hotel for happy hour.

Day 3: Today we will visit the Rosemont Float Barn while they are putting the finishing touches on the floats. You'll see how they attach the various organic materials on the floats and how the flowers are prepared for being attached. Then we head to Sea Port Village for lunch (on your own). Next, we will take the Glory Days tour of the Queen Mary. Then back to the hotel where we will have our New Year's Eve Dinner.

Day 4: Today is Parade Day. Early breakfast and then on to the Parade. When the parade is over there will be a brown bag lunch waiting for you on the bus. We head for home right after the parade.

We have had many questions about how to dress for this tour. There is quite a bit of walking so you will want to wear walking shoes. It is best to dress in layers as it will be quite chilly in the mornings and may warm up as the day goes on.

The dress code for the New Year's Eve Dinner is whatever you want. If you like to dress up for dinner, then please do. Most people just dress casually.
